Prospering Safety; Safety and Risk Management Services
March 11th 1:00 pm to 5:00 pm
Pennsylvania Newspaper Association, 3899 North Front Street, Harrisburg, PA

OSHA's leading citation is for scaffolding violations. This competent person level training is focused on educating the participant to evaluate scaffolding exposures in the construction environment, select the correct equipment, train employees, and perform OSHA-required inspections in the field. Supported, suspension, and mobile scaffolds will be covered. OSHA's 29 CFR 1926.451 regulation will be provided and utilized during the class. A sample written Scaffolding Safety Program will be provided to each attendee to customize for their company safety program.

Who Should Attend: Safety Professionals, Supervisors, Jobsite Superintendents, Forepersons, Plant Managers, and anyone responsible for safety in your company.

Cost $150 (non-member $275) – cost includes lunch and all handouts used in the training.
